

CORPORATE TEAM BUILDING

Leisure King provide and run a whole host of team building events throughout the year, nationwide.

Accommodating a range of company sizes, Leisure King work with you to build and design the perfect team building day.

Being able to cater to companies nationwide on the days that suit you, our staff are experienced in catering and running a variety of team building days and solo events - whether it's half a day or a whole week!

With a range of inflatable products, activities (including sports) as well as mobile escape rooms and more available, bring your team together and push them to challenge themselves and one another through activities outside of the office and away from the desk.

But that's not all, we can also provide prizes and incentives for all staff members too. Bespoke trophies and medals are also available, and some products are also available for branding - simply mention this upon booking and all options can be discussed before the event day.

Perfect for:

- Challenging yourself and team mates
- Building confidence amongst staff
- Building stronger working relationships

Catering from 50—500 people,
2 hour sessions to all day events.
