

HUNGRY HIPPOS

Remember the classic board game Hungry Hippos? Well, we've brought it to life, with you in the spotlight! Scramble against the harness to grab as many balls as you can!

The game is simple, collect as many balls as you can to feed your inner hippo hunger and deposit the balls collected into your pouch. Super simple right? But how about adding in a harness belt, on a giant Inflatable, with the pressure of the crowd and your inner competitive king just waiting to be unleashed!

Hungry Hippos is perfect for team building days where you can tag team your fellow team mates and round up who wins the highest score! Or to change it up a bit, hire for a wedding to do the ultimate showdown between the bride and groom – just so the record gets set straight for the future.
