

SILENT DISCO

Silent discos are a fun way to keep the party going, without worrying about the noise!

Our silent disco hire is available for 25 people up to 100s.

Our silent disco hire package includes everything you need to run your event - silent disco headsets, transmitters and chargers (although everything will be sent to you fully charged). The headsets are comfortable to wear, have disco flashing lights and crystal clear sound quality. The transmitter has a range of up to 300m, up to three channels (1 channel per 25 head-phones) and can be used with most music devices (including your smart phone), simply plug in and play. All of the equipment is shipped directly to you, but technical help is always available on the day of your event just in case.

Our silent disco hire isn't only for parties and discos - why not book for your conference, guided walking tour, outdoor cinema or corporate event. it's the perfect solution for events where you want to ensure
